Dwarf Fruit Trees

A KELLY SPECIALTY FOR MANY YEARS

They Bear Bigger, More Colorful Fruit than Full-Size Trees Lovely in Blossomtime, Mouthwatering Apple Harvest in Fall

PLANT NOW FOR THE CHILDREN
WATCH THEM GROW UP TOGETHER

WHAT A THRILL to have scenes like this in your own garden just two years from this fall! The trees bear so early we have seen them fruit right in the nursery. The dwarf apple trees will be among your children's treasured memories of the family together. Middle-agers and senior citizens prize them too—there's so short a wait between planting and bountiful harvests of luscious fruits. These three kinds are favorites everywhere; it is well to have two or more kinds to produce the heaviest yield. More varieties on page 7. Sent postpaid.

Feathery Giant Parrot Tulips

Exotic Giant Parrot Tulips with their many fascinating shapes and variegated colors bring rare beauty to any garden. In them you'll find new interest daily as big buds burst and huge feathery petals open up like the wings of colorful macaws. Others, equally fringed and feathery, resemble costly orchids. Kelly guaranteed-to-bloom bulbs are highest quality No. 1 size $4\frac{3}{8}$ to $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. or more around, blooming just ahead of the Darwins in May.

Black Parrot. Large glistening ebony-black blooms highlighted velvety maroon. 27 in.

Blue Parrot. Ruffled fringy petals, bright violet background overcast with steel blue. 26 in. tall.

Fantasy. Soft pinks shaded velvety rose, encrusted with emerald green. 30 in.

Firebird. Fiery red of glowing embers accented with pleasing green markings. 20 in.

Orange Parrot. Glistening deep orange petals shaded rose with yellow markings; orange scarlet inside. 24 in.

Tall Giant Peony Tulips

All Double

Truly amazing! The huge, extremely double blooms are so like the peonies that follow them in blooming season—and larger—many will think they are peonies. Sturdy 20-in. stems proudly hold the massive blooms erect. Do enjoy them next spring.

Eros. Clear lilac-rose, petals edged silvery rose. One of the best peony tulips for garden and bouquets.

Mount Tacoma. In form and immense size resembles a big white Chinese Peony. Long-lasting in bouquets.

Nizzo. The rare combination of clear yellow with scarlet-red stripes out-does any real peony ever known.

Rocket. Magnificent very double crimson-red blooms, pictured below, one of the newest and best.

Uncle Tom. Striking deep midnight

maroon, almost black—unique and most desirable. Always admired.

PHEASANT GIANT HYBRIDS

Now Pheasants and Peacocks Join the Parrots in the Exotic Bird Families of Tulips!

Pheasant Hybrids

A new thrill awaits you next spring when enjoying in your garden this wonderful new strain of giant Hybrid Tulips created by our Holland hybridizers. One of the best of all Darwin tulips was crossed with the famous Red Emperor, and Pheasant Hybrids have the virtues of both! They're much earlier than most tulips, blooming right after Red Emperor on long strong stems 25 to 30 in. tall. The huge blooms open up to 8 or 9 in. across and come in a gorgeous array of multicolors, some of which are pictured at left. Postpaid.

THE LILY FLOWERED MARIETTE

Graceful, Unique "Lily" Tulips

The queenly grace of the attractively curved or reflexed petals, reminiscent of the stately lilies for which they are named, has become desired more and more by tulip fanciers in recent years. In addition to bringing a light and airy touch to the garden, they are easy to arrange in artistic bouquets. Large bulbs, May-flowering.

Golden Duchess. Delightful golden-yellow blooms, striking in form and beauty. One of the very best.

Mariette. The lovely rose-pink tones harmonize beautifully with other colors for a grand display.

Poet. One of the few tulips in hard-to-find shades of blue—the mid-blue lightens to lavender blue.

Queen of Sheba. Voluptuous curved petals of warm brownish red, handsomely edged with gold.

Red Shine. The deep red petals have a warm glow for a grand show. Long-lasting even in bad weather.

White Triumphator. Largest, strongest, most beautiful. Pure white; petals reflexed in true lily tradition.

Plant This Fall for Lavish Beauty Next Spring

As one of the largest nurseries in the country, in business since 1880, Kelly Bros. have enjoyed a nation-wide reputation for quality. We have high standards to uphold, and our Holland Bulb Growers recognize this. They select for our customers only the highest quality bulbs, which are also inspected by the Dutch Government authorities and U.S. Dept. of Agriculture before shipment. Our growers know our policy of supplying the best at moderate prices, and work closely with us to do so.

We invite you to enjoy Kelly Imported Holland Bulbs, and know you will be delighted.

Fall Is the Ideal Time to Plant All the Nursery Items Described in This Catalog

Fall is an ideal time to plant—it's Nature's way. Get a flying start on next spring—all fall and winter your plants grow thousands of new feeder roots, ready to supply food and water the first day of spring. Healthy, vigorous spring growth needs lots of roots. Often bad weather makes early spring planting impossible.

Gain a year by planting this fall. You'll have stocky plants, more growth, earlier, finer and more blooms. You will enjoy fall planting too. The soil is mellow, easier to work and your planting will reward you with the greatest and most enduring pleasure for the thought, effort and time you have invested.

We've Grown Your Plants with "Tender Loving Care"

In the rich soil and ideal climatic conditions of this fertile Genesee Valley in New York State we raise the best nursery stock available. Our rigorous northern winters have proved its built-in stamina to grow and thrive. We take pains to deliver nursery stock in A-1 condition and our interest does not end when your order is filled. We guarantee complete satisfaction and consider no transaction complete until you are entirely pleased. See Kelly Guarantee on page 38.

Want to Give Them Extra Kindness So They'll Do Their Best for You?

1. TEST YOUR SOIL (or have it tested)

Some plants, like blueberries, must have acid or sour soil; others, like lilacs, require alkaline or sweet soil. Include a Sudbury Soil Test Kit in your order, and you'll know right away how much lime your soil needs to correct acidity, how much sulfur or aluminum sulfate to use if it's too alkaline. You'll know how much nitrogen, phosphorus and potash is needed for top-notch results. No soil samples to mail—you get your answers right away. Order the Horticultural Model and you'll be glad you did. Or the Home Garden Model to see for yourself.

(They're also wonderful Christmas Gifts for Gardeners)

Home Garden Model—for the small garden and lawn. Clear lucite case, makes 50 tests for same elements as Horticultural Kit. Postpaid, $6.98

2. USE RA-PID-GRO for starter solution

Before you plant, soak all roots in RA-PID-GRO and pour RA-PID-GRO solution into the holes with the plants. It supplies life-giving nutrients instantly available to the plant, also root hormones and important trace elements. When you see how much it does, you'll use RA-PID-GRO on everything you plant. Use 1 tablespoon per gal. of water. 1 lb. (makes 30 gal.) $1.30; 5 lbs. (makes 150 gal.) $4.75; 10 lbs. (makes 300 gal.) $9.00; 25 lbs. (makes 750 gal.) $21.00.

The Leading Exotic for American Gardens

Tree Peonies

Oriental Treasures Nurtured by
Imperial Dynasties for 1000 years

NOW WITHIN REACH OF ALL

The royal plant of the Orient, formerly allowed only in the gardens of princes and potentates. The exotic blooms were embroidered on the trousseau of princesses. First smuggled from China about 1767, they all but disappeared; the secrets of propagation were known only to a few.

Huge Flowers Up to 8 in. Across on "Trees"
Imported Direct from Japan

Unlike other Peonies they do not die back to the ground but produce woody stems increasing each year to 4 or 5 ft. The giant crimped petals glisten as if fashioned from Oriental silk. Huge double goblet-shaped blooms 8 in. across, up to one hundred to a tree.

Extremely Hardy, Easy to Grow

Despite their exotic loveliness, they withstand 20° below zero. They'll live for generations. Postpaid

The Wondrous, Miraculous Christmas Rose Blooms in the Snow!

One of gardening's most thrilling experiences is to walk through the snow and pick these glistening white blossoms. Your Christmas Roses will want to stay with you for life. So pick a spot where they can remain; they never need transplanting. Contrary to most garden plants, the short days and cold weather of late fall and winter stimulate growth, buds and bloom. Amaze your friends with their chaste, waxy, five-petaled flowers peeping through the snow at holidaytime—in fact blooming all winter from October till March or April.

Truly, here is a patrician of the garden world. The flowers are 2 to 3 in. across with brilliant golden yellow stamens, in clusters of 3, 4 or more on spreading plants about 8 to 12 in. tall. The beautiful evergreen foliage is ornamental all year round. Of course they're not really roses—they're Helleborus niger altifolius.

No. 1 plants $1.50 each, 3 for $3.75, 6 for $6.75, 12 for $12.50

The Legend of the Christmas Rose

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem and wise men came with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, a little shepherdess wept because she had no gift for the Christ Child. As her tears fell to the ground a miracle of flowers sprang up, which she picked and brought to Him. So was conceived a flower never before seen—the Christmas Rose.

Kelly Presents the Astounding New Shademaster Thornless Honeylocust

Plant Patent No. 1515

What a perfect name for this new Thornless Honeylocust with all its superior, desirable qualities for the home grounds! The graceful ascending branches form an unbelievably symmetrical top, different from other Honeylocusts. Lovely dark green fern-like foliage lets the sunlight filter through in dancing shadows of restful shade. Lawn grass thrives right up to the straight, smooth, thornless trunk. Holland bulbs and many other flowering plants are happy and bloom well underneath its branches.

Shademaster is indeed gratifying to those who have built or bought new homes which did not have the tranquility of shade trees to beautify the surroundings. You want high quality, dependable, long-lived trees that furnish shade quickly. Kelly Shademasters often grow 5 ft. in a single season! The tree at left was the 5-6 ft. size when planted only three years ago.

Perfectly hardy, deep rooted, free from disease and insect pests. Drought-resistant, at home in all locations. Height at maturity, 25 to 40 ft. No unsightly seed pods, nor leaf-raking in the fall. A great new tree by all standards.

8-10 ft. Shipped Express.....	Each	$10.50	2 for	$19.95
6-8 ft. Shipped Express.....	Each	7.50	2 for	13.95
5-6 ft. Postpaid.....	Each	5.95	2 for	10.95

Shademaster Has All These Desirable Traits

1. Rapid growth.
2. Straight strong trunk.
3. Heavy dark green foliage.
4. Requires no staking.
5. Freedom from disease.
6. Drought resistant.
7. Grass will grow right up to the trunk.
8. No leaf raking in the fall.

This New Ivy Is a Great Boon for Northern Homes!

How often you've admired the luxuriant English Ivy in warmer climes, wished you could enjoy it at home. At last you can!

The Long-Wanted Evergreen Rochester Ivy

Good news for home owners in the north who have long wished for winter-hardy English ivy. Rochester Ivy, named for Rochester, Minnesota where it was developed, survives ice, sleet and sub-zero cold, with green foliage all year round. It thrives in sun or shade, takes even exposed situations in its stride. Never gets shaggy, looks well cared for. Withstands city smoke and grime less hardy plants cannot endure.

A Handsome, Foolproof Ground Cover

In so many spots, Rochester Ivy is the happy answer! Along walks, on walls, fences, at the doorstep, in planters, under trees, on banks and terraces, these are but a few. No more disappointing freeze-outs every time a severe winter comes along. Rochester Ivy quickly forms an admirable thick emerald carpet. Unique short internodes produce leaves and branches close together, without long gawky runners. The most refined of all ivy ground covers, 6 in. tall. Harmonizes with both broadleaf and needle evergreens.

Fast-Growing, Ornamental Climbing Vine

Let the beauty of Rochester Ivy decorate chimneys and walls. Self-clinging to all masonry. Will climb up three stories where desired, or spread over wide areas to enhance the beauty of your home. At its best in full or semi-shade.

Cherished for House Plants Indoors

Rochester Ivy in pots or in water thrives without any direct sunlight at all. It fills many interesting decorating needs and takes a lot of neglect, needs little care.

Limited Supply—because Rochester Ivy is so new, send your order early before the fall planting stock is exhausted.

3-in. pots, postpaid: 5 for $3.25, 10 for $6.00, 15 for $8.25, 25 for $12.50, 50 for $22.50, 100 for $38.00.

Kelly's DWARF FRUIT TREES

Especially Recommended for Limited Space

These Dwarf Type Trees are meeting favor with owners of the ranch, bungalow, and two-story homes, especially when garden space is limited. Besides providing graceful flowers and fruit for the family, "Dwarfs" are an asset as an ornamental tree. Kelly's have scientifically grown these trees to give full satisfaction wherever planted.

Clearview Farm

Kelly's Colorful LAWN TREES of unusual beauty

Crimson King Maple (Pl. Pat. No. 735)

The Aristocrat of Ornamental and Shade Trees

You will want to be one of the first to own this distinctive, colorful, captivating tree, which was sent to America a few years ago from Europe. Crimson King develops a rounded, compact shape of unusual symmetry but differs from all other Maples in having foliage of deep crimson-purple all through the growing months, bringing you an exhilarating contrast to the prevalent greens. Your Crimson King is perfectly hardy and easily grows from 25-40 ft.; not harmed by smoke, dust or gasses, bringing you colorful beauty for generations.

Ruby Tree

(Prunus Newport) A dwarf tree of excellent shape, clothed in purple-red foliage from spring to fall. The leaves are more lasting than other plants and as the season advances change to a glowing bronze. Grows approximately 10 ft. high and is an excellent color contrast with the prevailing greens in the lawn and shrub border. Plant in full sun for maximum coloration. Decidedly different. Postpaid.

European Mountain Ash

Much more satisfactory than the native species, since it fruits more prolifically and has more compact habit. Large, flat clusters of white flowers in the spring. Clusters of flashy, orange-red berries all over the tree in summer and fall. Deep green, clean foliage perfectly implements the graceful, upright habit. Grows to a height of 18-25 ft. with a spread of 15 ft. maximum. Makes a colorful landscape accent in shrub border, garden background, or an individual lawn specimen.

Paul's Scarlet Hawthorn

Old fashioned beauty. Our parents knew and loved the Scarlet Hawthorn. And no wonder, the graceful spreading branches provide a symphony of color with their broad, green leaves and brilliant rosy-red flowers in double clusters that literally cover the whole tree. You get a double beauty award in the abundant scarlet fruit later in the season. An ideal tree that rapidly reaches maturity of 15 ft. and thrives in all locations. A wise choice for small yards. Postpaid.

Tree Hydrangea

Large, pyramidal trusses of pure snow-white blossoms appear in early August. As fall approaches, they change to a luminous pink. At this stage, they may be cut for all winter, dry bouquets. Blossoms measure a foot long and 6-8 ins. wide. A low growing tree, standing not more than 4-6 ft. in height. This is one of the finest ornamentals, planted as a specimen or in the foreground of high massed shrubs. Add a touch of elegance to your lawn—plant this fall. Hardy and long-lived. Postpaid.

Norway Maple

Best all around shade tree. Rich indeed is the city whose inhabitants plant Norway Maple as a permanent street tree. Foliage dense, rich in color. Its dense leaves are a rich green color and hold on the tree longer in the fall than most Maples, without much change in color. A good tree for street or lawn specimen plantings, where good form and shade are needed. Reaches a height of 30-50 ft. Is resistant to storm, very clean in habit and the leaves will stand smoke, soot and attacks from insects.

Lombardy Poplar

Tall, fast growing, spire-like tree. Thrives on the poorest of soils and grows rapidly, often to 75 ft. at maturity. Everybody likes the striking appearance of this tall, narrow-growing tree, like a church spire. Branches from the ground up; needs no pruning. Dark green, well-formed leaves have a lighter undersurface. Presents an elegant picture along driveways and property lines. Ideal for screening, windbreaks and back-grounds. When used for these purposes, plant 5-6 ft. apart.

Flowering Strathmore Crab Tree

New type "Pyramidal Flowering Crab"

Glorious in Bloom . . . Handsome Foliage Prepare for a wave of excitement when you plant these spire-like specimen trees. Never before has there been a Flowering Crab like it. In early spring masses of rosy-pink blossoms literally cover the tree, creating your own one tree flower show. When not in bloom, the naturally ascending branches are covered with large beautiful reddish-bronze foliage that in the fall turns to shades of brilliant orange and scarlet, accented with hundreds of miniature apples hanging like pendant jewels.

Showy Specimens. Living Walls of Color. Strathmore grows 10-15 ft. tall in a slim symmetrical column tapering to a point at the top. These trees with straight, stately form and natural symmetry may be planted 3-5 ft. apart forming living walls of blossoms to screen undesirable areas with new found beauty.

Hardy even in Coldest Sections. Strathmore is rugged and grows like wildfire even in poor soils, full sun or partial shade withstanding the coldest, severest winter as frigid as 20 below zero, blossoming with lavish abundance. The perfect tree for all uses.

Moraine Locust (Trade Marked Pl. Pat. No. 386)

We are proud to offer this sensational shade tree, because we believe it so perfectly fills the needs of today. It will provide good shade quicker than any tree we know of. The Moraine Locust is hardy, drought-resistant and grows successfully on a wide range of soils. Because it is sterile, there are no unsightly seed pods to clutter up the lawn. It is also thornless. Vase formed in shape, wide spreading when older, like stately old Elm trees. The finely cut foliage allows enough light to filter through to promote excellent growth of lawns. Easily transplanted and will produce good growth in any kind of soil. Try a planting this Fall. Grows 25-40 ft.

BLUEBERRIES

Enjoy luscious, juicy, giant Blueberries right from your own bushes. These mouth-watering beauties are as big as Grapes. Delicious for pies, easy to preserve, fine for freezing. Bushes are trim and very ornamental planted in borders or beds.

Earliblue. The best of 1297 from the N.J. Agr. Exp. Sta. Earliest generous bearer of large, full flavored, light-blue berries. Acclaimed everywhere as the finest. Hardy, vigorous.

Coville. A new variety named for the late Dr. Coville. A vigorous bush growing to 6 ft. literally loaded with beautiful large clusters of light blue, firm, juicy fruit way late into August. Highly prized in commercial and home plantings.

Jersey. Vigorous, hardy bush that grows erect up to 6 or 7 ft. with delightful foliage. Produces very large, light blue berries that ship well. A fast growing, good commercial variety. Attractive and very ornamental with large leaves.

Pemberton. Considered the most vigorous of all. A very fast grower producing so abundantly that each bush is a fruit garden in itself. Berries are large, glossy and firm, of excellent quality for unsurpassed eating enjoyment.

Concord. Amazingly hardy, tall upright bush that produces ever increasing crops of high quality, extra large berries, as large as marbles, borne in clusters.

Scientifically budded to produce 5 distinct varieties on 1 tree. Famous the country over—pick apples from early summer until fall. Here's the opportunity for those with limited space to have a complete orchard with five different kinds, all growing on the one tree which requires only a 25 ft. space when fully grown. You may pick your own tree ripened fruit all summer from a tree that is as beautiful as it is bountiful. Fragrant apple blossoms, rich green foliage and your own tasty fresh fruit all from the one tree.

Yellow Delicious - Red Rome Beauty - Cortland - McIntosh Red - Lodi

I found my plants received from you this year just fine and healthy in every way. This is my 9th year of ordering from you and my fourth house to be graced by your plants and shrubs, all of which were very satisfactory.

Latham

RASPBERRIES

Easy to grow. . Quick to crop

Latham

A great commercial berry. Free from diseases and insects. Multiplies rapidly. Berries are large, plump, juicy, free from seediness and full of delicious flavor. Very hardy. Ripens July 1-10.

Sodus

Rich, delicious, reddish purple fruits of large size. The berries do not crumble and their flavor is rich and sweet. Delicious eaten fresh, and makes wonderful jam. Excellent for freezing.

Indian Summer

(Everbearing) Heavy crops of huge firm berries. All you'll want—Spring—Summer and best of all Fall, when berried fruit is scarce. Luscious, sweet tasting berries of the highest quality are produced on easy to pick, extremely hardy, easy to grow bushes. Be sure to include these amazing berries in your garden for delicious fresh fruit, starting the first year planted.

September

(Everbearing) Now you can plant a Raspberry that will produce an abundant crop in June and a crop of equal size in September. Fruit comes 2-4 weeks ahead of others and is larger and of better quality than any other Raspberry. The berries are firm and don't crumble. Plants vigorous, hardy and very productive. Unexcelled for home use and commercial production.

Kelly Famous STRAWBERRIES The Best!

Toothsome Delicacies Widely Enjoyed

Favorites for Spring Planting

You can depend on Kelly Strawberry Plants being the best available. All are VIRUS-FREE strains introduced through the U.S. Department of Agriculture. They BEAR HEAVIER and are MORE PROLIFIC, produce LARGER BERRIES and LIVE LONGER. Whether you raise Strawberries to sell and want to make more money, or in your garden for the biggest, finest flavored, fully ripened fruit, it is wise to order now. Some kinds may be in short supply next spring. You'll be sure of your plants and have them to set out at the right time to do their best. We mail Postpaid.

It is our experience that strawberries planted in the fall are never as satisfactory as those planted in the spring. This is because plants cannot be dug until very late in the season—too late for planting in many localities.

We dig strawberry plants early in the spring, and immediately put them in cold storage where they are kept in perfect condition.

For those who desire to plant in the fall, we can supply plants after October 15th, but our regular guarantee upon fall planted berries does not apply. Be sure to mulch with 3-4 inches of coarse litter.

EARLY

New Midland. Outstanding in flavor, size, beauty, productivity, firmness. Frozen, remain firm when thawed. Cross of Premier and Redheart. Deep red.

Kelly's Large Flowering HARDY PHLOX

Undisputed Queen of the August Garden

When the withering heat of July and August makes many garden flowers unsightly and fade away, these queenly Kelly Phlox are at their best. All are selected, improved kinds that produce larger, more imposing flowerheads in luscious colors, almost the complete rainbow. Their soft fragrance scents the whole garden, and the home when cut. No other summer perennial does more for the garden or is less dependent on the gardener's care.

Specially Recommended, New for 1964

Capt. Symons-Jeune's Creations (England)

Starfire. Most beautiful warm, lively, rich red ever grown! Immense clusters, non-fading, long-lasting. Blooms weeks.

Joan. Vivid red, almost scarlet, deep crimson eye, large florets.

Fairy's Petticoat. Immense clusters, delicate pink with deep pink eye.

Mammoth Hardy GARDEN PEONIES

Favorite Double Varieties for an Outstanding Display

Giant Peonies give so much for so little! Once planted, they develop into large bushes that bring crowning glory by Memorial Day and all through June year after year. The mammoth blooms and brilliant colors present a dramatic display that can be seen and enjoyed from afar. Just a few make a gorgeous, long-lasting bouquet. Many are delightfully fragrant. The ornamental foliage makes a handsome hedge or border all summer long. Extremely hardy, Peonies require practically no care, are remarkably free from pests and diseases.

Kelly Peonies are strong 3 to 5-eye root divisions. Expertly selected, highly rated, most desirable forms and colors. Postpaid.

Felix Crousse. Rich, brilliant ruby-red. Large, deep, round, fully packed blooms. Long strong stems.

Edulis Superba. Beautiful deep rose-pink, giant size, one of the most fragrant. Usually in bloom by Memorial Day.

Festiva Maxima. Very large, very double, and early. Pure white petals accented by smaller petals, crimson flecked.

Queen of Hamburg. Immense, perfectly formed, intensely double, bright gleaming pink. Begins as Edulis Superba finishes.

Sarah Bernhardt. One of the largest, most wanted deep rose-pinks. Further lengthens the pink Peony season. Very fragrant.

Soulange. In great demand, highly rated. Unique, deep cream tinged amber. Soft salmon-pink glow in heart of flower.

Karl Rosenfield. Dazzling rich velvety crimson with large incurved petals that reflect sunlight. One of the best reds.

Huge, Impressive, Orchid-Like Hardy GARDEN IRIS

These huge, brilliantly colored and multicolored blooms have brought new beauty and charm that have made Iris the belle of the late May and June garden. What else can give you such a breath-taking rainbow array that attracts attention way across the street—even several houses away? They hold their own with the Peonies and Oriental Poppies, all together creating an unforgettable riotous color display that makes any garden a center of attraction in the neighborhood. Very easy to grow, they live over severest winters, have beautiful sword-like foliage all season. Do not fail to have these newer richer colors next spring by planting now.

Belle Meade. Extra large flowers of great distinction, an exciting blend of rich deep violet blue accented with bold icy white patches. A wonderful companion to the warm shades. Has excellent branching habit.

Pink Plume. Recognized as the best of its shade—a lovely translucent pink with purity of color that makes it appear iridescent, especially in sunlight or lamplighted in bouquets.

Goldbeater. Beautifully proportioned and graceful form. Rich and clear gleaming deep gold, almost fluorescent, with reddish veins and throat.

Party Dress. Nicely ruffled, as a party dress should be. Orchid-like, lovely rose and orchid pink, truly the belle of the ball! Exceedingly free-blooming over a long period. A really choice variety.

Black Diamond. One of the most worthy of all kinds of flowers that aspire to the much-sought "black" so many admire. The lustrous velvety deep purple is dark as midnight, brilliantly enlivened by standards with warmer purple highlights. For depth of color, size of blooms and fine form it tops the list.

Your Choice, postpaid, Each $1.00, 3 for $2.95, 6 for $5.75

Daylilies Hemerocallis

First choice for today's easy-going gardeners, as well as the connoisseur! A wonderful world of color with little care and at low cost—as much as 300 flowers per plant when established. They're hybrids, distinguished plants with clean foliage and masses of glorious blooms like shimmering trumpets and glistening stars. Some are frilly and fluted, some ridged with gold. Some wear halos. You'll enjoy the suffusions of glowing hues, the stripes and blending.

Add sparkle to your partially shaded summer borders, in July and August. Few plants can surpass them in vigor, beauty and hardiness with so much zest for living there's no staking, no spraying, no "babying" ever. Lovely range of colors, all pleasingly fragrant. Postpaid.

TALLHEDGE

Rhamnus frangula columnaris, Pl. Pat. 1388

Everyone who has ever seen this remarkable new plant, wants it. Just imagine living columns of upright branches, as straight as sentinels, smothered with dark green foliage right to the ground. And what foliage it is! Lustrous large dark green leaves are thick and heavy, sprinkled with color-changing berries, progressing through green, cream, pink and red, to a jet black. Your own natural kaleidoscope, right for any place, as single specimens or outdoor living curtains.

Easy to Grow, Carefree

Tallhedge grows like wildfire, often 3-4 ft. a year, to handsome, leafy natural spires of 15 ft. Grass grows right up to trunks. Never bare-legged nor wider than 4 ft., without pruning or pampering. Long lived, carefree. Resistant to disease, insect pests, city smoke, salt air. Hardy to 20° below zero. Stands heat, partial shade. Most foolproof plant we know.

Living Walls of Beauty

For peek-proof screens, to muffle street noises—keep children and pets in or out—yard dividers—privacy and backdrop for your "outdoor living room." Hides unpleasant areas. Plant 2-3 ft. apart (better yet, we recommend 2-2½ ft.)

Decorate Your Garden

Sensational as lawn specimens, frames for entrances—by walks or driveways.

Rosa Multiflora

Controls Erosion, Provides Wildlife Refuge—Adds Beauty to Landscape

Dense growth, white blossoms in June. Red berries late summer and fall attract birds, including game. Its thorns keep animals and children out (or in). Prune often; untrimmed it grows up 8 ft., 6 to 8 ft. wide. Plant 1 ft. apart; grows 2-3 ft. in a season.

Beautifying CLIMBING VINES and GROUND COVERS

Dwarf Lace Plant

Polygonum Reynoutria

Easy to grow, ironclad-hardy, establishing itself quickly from underground runners, doing best in full sun or partial shade, growing 6-12 in. tall. One of the best for spots too sunny for Vinca or Pachysandra. In autumn, the crisp apple-green foliage turns a brilliant red, enveloped in clouds of airy pink flower sprays similar to those of the Silver Lace Vine.

The buds are deep red, adding to the brilliance of this unique plant from one of England's oldest, best-known plantsmen. Plant 18 in. apart for an unmatched floral carpet, aflame August till frost. Postpaid.

Vinca Minor

Myrtle

(Periwinkle) One of the best creeping Evergreen Ground Covers, needs no care, lives on and on for years. Dainty glossy foliage stays green always. Has a profusion of bright blue star-like flowers in early summer.

A favorite for use under trees, in foundation plantings and other shady spots where grass and many plants will not grow. Excellent for edging and borders.

Lilies appreciate Vinca protecting their roots both summer and winter. Add to its beauty by interplanting with Daffodils or other bulbs. Plant 4 in. apart. Postpaid.

Pachysandra Terminalis

Japanese Spurge

The most popular of Evergreen Ground Covers. The exceedingly ornamental glossy green foliage stays always neat without any care, never needs clipping. It spreads rapidly, giving a finished look to an underplanting.

Especially useful under dense shade trees where grass will not survive. Admirable under evergreens and shrubs. The only plant that will do well under pines. Also good for steep bank where mowing is difficult. Holds the soil. Pachysandra puts the finishing touch to any foundation planting. Plant four or more per sq. ft.

HOW TO ORDER FROM KELLY

Please read carefully

1. Order now for shipment at planting time.
2. Unless you specify a specific date, we will ship at the proper planting time in your section.
3. A postage-free combination order blank envelope is in this catalog. To insure prompt reply write all letters separately.
4. Our terms are remittance with order. All prices postpaid unless otherwise noted.
5. Please do not ask us to ship C.O.D. The Post Office and Express Company make an extra charge for this service, which makes your costs greater.

How to Remit—The best way to send payment with your order is by personal check, Post Office or Express Money Order. Do not send stamps or currency unless registered.

Free Planting Guide—With every order we will send absolutely free a book which, by word and picture, shows just how to plant a tree or shrub.

Our References—As to our responsibility and reliability, we refer you to the Genesee Valley Union Trust Co., Dansville, N. Y.; Groveland State Bank, Groveland, N. Y.; or to your State Experiment Station or College.

We Pay Postage

Most plants listed in the catalog are delivered to your home postpaid. Trees too large for parcel post shipment are sent by express—you pay the charges.

Where there is a mixed order of postpaid and express items, we ship the whole order express, prepaying in advance, our portion of the charges.

Please refer to our spring catalog for complete listing of all stock we grow

Our Guarantee

RA-PID-GRO

The Miracle
Plant Food

Originated Here in Dansville Over 30 Years Ago

Ra-Pid-Gro is water soluble, highly concentrated, cannot burn or injure plants. 23% nitrogen, 21% phosphorus, 17% potash, also numerous essential minerals, vitamins and hormones. Feeds through leaves, bark, stems, buds, roots. Use sprinkling can, hose applicator, or sprayer.

Ra-Pid-Gro pioneered feeding trees, shrubs and plants through the leaves. Plants take up nutrients instantly. You can spray and feed at same time.

Invaluable as a starter solution in setting out trees, shrubs and plants of all kinds. A valuable aid in moving and transplanting even mature specimens now on your property.

Hyacinths are Indispensable!

The Queen of Spring Flowers

FILL YOUR GARDEN AND ENRICH YOUR HOME WITH THE LOVELIEST OF FLORAL FRAGRANCES

The stately spikes of colorful bells and the heavenly fragrance of Hyacinths have made them garden favorites for generations, now more popular than ever before! Coming so early in spring, they are doubly welcome. Even a modest planting will permeate the garden with sweet perfume. A few spikes brought indoors fill a room with fragrance. Hyacinths are wonderful at the doorstep and along walks, wafting their fragrance for all to enjoy. They are elegant in beds and borders, charming in front of shrubbery and evergreens, pleasing with daffodils. Kelly high quality No. 1 large size bulbs are over 2 in. across, to give you a glorious display. Six best colors for your enjoyment:

City of Haarlem. Closely-set large creamy-yellow bells, one of the best yellows.

Jan Bos. An unusually rich red hue that holds true for a long time. Unexcelled.

King of the Blues. Large bells in deep indigo blue, on long-lasting spikes.

L'Innocence. Large pure white bells on strong stems, graceful wherever used.

Pearl Brilliant. Refreshing porcelain blue, always admired in any planting.

Queen of the Pinks. Luscious clear bright pink bells on large impressive spikes.

NEW! Giant "Jewels of Tibet"

(Allium Giganteum)

An Outstanding
New Attraction
for Your Garden
Next Spring!

What a thrill to enjoy in your own garden something so new you never saw it before. What a pleasure to hear friends admire it and want some too.

Especially when it's the sensational new Jewels of Tibet! Each flowerhead is a huge spectacular sphere of vivid purple florets 6-8 in. across, on 3 to 5 ft. stems.

Coming from mountainous Tibet, they are sub-zero hardy, easy to grow, living for years, and multiplying. Bloom in late spring.

By good fortune we secured our first supply last fall. The demand far exceeded the supply. We hope we'll have enough. Postpaid.
